

Shanghai Stopover

Shanghai. situated on the banks of the Yangtze River Delta in East China is the largest city of China and eighth largest in the world. Widely regarded as the citadel of most important cultural, commercial, financial, industrial and communications centres of China. Originally a sleepy fishing town, Shanghai became China's most important city by 20th century. Shanghai's skyscrapers and modern lifestyle mark the pinnacle of China's recent economic development. It attracts travellers from both home and abroad through its frenetic commercial activity rather than scenic beauty.
